

EXAMPLE STUDY NOTE - ORIGINAL DEMO MATERIAL

Programming Foundations - Variables and Types

Concept

A variable names a value. Strings hold text; integers hold whole numbers. Assign once, then use the name in an expression.

Exercise

Set score to 4. Add 3 and explain why the result is 7.

Try the exercise before checking your understanding.